

The Death of Someone I Love

 Death is very sad.  We  do  not  know when  death will happen.  Death can make a person  be  sad. When  I  feel  sad, I  can  talk to my  teachers and other  family  members. When  I  feel  sad, it is ok to cry. I  can  ask for a hug or  I  might  need a break. I  might  see other people  cry, because they  are  sad too. It is ok to give them a hug. As  time  goes on, I  might not  feel as sad. This is ok. I  can  still  love this  person. The person that died,  loved me  very  much. I  can  remember this  person in my  heart .
