

Place hand between student and communication partner. Have second person prompt student from the back to pick up and give "Helping Hand" to communication partner to request help. Fade prompting from the back as student becomes more independent.